The Word of God

… The Lord Jesus did not predestinate you to die, but rather to meet the Lord, when He comes with His heaven.

… My child, My sheep, be in a holy place, be on a holy ground. Do not let yourself indulged in illusions, do not go to foreign countries. There used to be two children: Olt and Mureş, and they both separated from each other. Mureş took east, and Olt took west. And God told Olt: ”Olt, you foaming river, may you be deep and wide, may you be always troubled and mixed with blood.” And to Mureş He said: ”Mureş, Mureş, calm water, do not go to a foreign country, or else you shall not have rest.” For Olt was a pagan and Mureş was a christian.

… Long ago, Christians used to grow beards and long hair, but now this is not possible, because people touch your hair and make it dirty. You will not be able, Christian, to be tormented for your beard and hair, because one will hold you by one hand and another will hold you by the other hand, and your hair will be cut and your beard will be shaved. And why let yourself be mocked at by Gog and Magog? (The communism from the north, r.n.)

Excerpt from the Word of God, from 08-02-1979